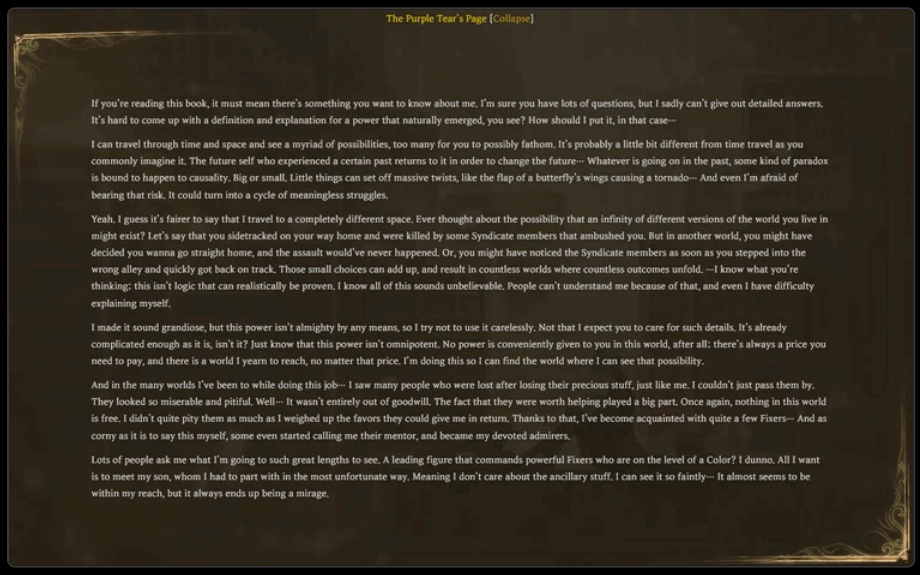
La página clave de la Purple Tear nos dice que su habilidad principal es el salto entre dimensiones.



The Purple Tear's Page [Collapse]

If you're reading this book, it must mean there's something you want to know about me. I'm sure you have lots of questions, but I sadly can't give out detailed answers. It's hard to come up with a definition and explanation for a power that naturally emerged, you see? How should I put it, in that case---

I can travel through time and space and see a myriad of possibilities, too many for you to possibly fathom. It's probably a little bit different from time travel as you commonly imagine it. The future self who experienced a certain past returns to it in order to change the future--- Whatever is going on in the past, some kind of paradox is bound to happen to causality. Big or small. Little things can set off massive twists, like the flap of a butterfly's wings causing a tornado--- And even I'm afraid of bearing that risk. It could turn into a cycle of meaningless struggles.

Yeah. I guess it's fairer to say that I travel to a completely different space. Ever thought about the possibility that an infinity of different versions of the world you live in might exist? Let's say that you sidetracked on your way home and were killed by some Syndicate members that ambushed you. But in another world, you might have decided you wanna go straight home, and the assault would've never happened. Or, you might have noticed the Syndicate members as soon as you stepped into the wrong alley and quickly got back on track. Those small choices can add up, and result in countless worlds where countless outcomes unfold. ---I know what you're thinking: this isn't logic that can realistically be proven. I know all of this sounds unbelievable. People can't understand me because of that, and even I have difficulty explaining myself.

I made it sound grandiose, but this power isn't almighty by any means, so I try not to use it carelessly. Not that I expect you to care for such details. It's already complicated enough as it is, isn't it? Just know that this power isn't omnipotent. No power is conveniently given to you in this world, after all; there's always a price you need to pay, and there is a world I yearn to reach, no matter that price. I'm doing this so I can find the world where I can see that possibility.

And in the many worlds I've been to while doing this job--- I saw many people who were lost after losing their precious stuff, just like me. I couldn't just pass them by. They looked so miserable and pitiful. Well--- It wasn't entirely out of goodwill. The fact that they were worth helping played a big part. Once again, nothing in this world is free. I didn't quite pity them as much as I weighed up the favors they could give me in return. Thanks to that, I've become acquainted with quite a few Fixers--- And as corny as it is to say this myself, some even started calling me their mentor, and became my devoted admirers.

Lots of people ask me what I'm going to such great lengths to see. A leading figure that commands powerful Fixers who are on the level of a Color? I dunno. All I want is to meet my son, whom I had to part with in the most unfortunate way. Meaning I don't care about the ancillary stuff. I can see it so faintly--- It almost seems to be within my reach, but it always ends up being a mirage.

Esta es una habilidad que usa en combate para saltar entre piso y piso.
Además, los pisos de Yesod, Chesed y Binah tienen cielos, todos completamente diferentes entre sí.

Esto indica que los pisos son dimensiones separadas en lugar de pisos físicos, lo cual cuadra con la Biblioteca siendo un espacio infinito de varias líneas temporales.

Esto importa ya que en ningún momento la Observación de los personajes afecta más allá del piso donde ocurre la pelea.

Por lo tanto, al Observación dejaría de tener alcance Multiversal Alto, y pasaría a tener alcance Universal Complejo

Otra cosa importante es que la biblioteca amplifica la Observación de la gente.

Así que si bien todos los personajes tienen Observación, el alcance 2-C Bajo solo aplica a los miembros de la Biblioteca.

El resto de personajes pasaría a tener un alcance desconocido, sin embargo, mediante el uso de E.G.O., este puede aumentar a decenas de kilómetros, ya que múltiples E.G.O. usados por los Pecadores pueden afectar enormes áreas, principalmente, Soda Ryoshu puede crear un mar

Sin embargo, los Agentes sí que tendrían observación con rango Uni Complejo mediante EGO, ya que el EGO usado por los bibliotecarios también puede warpear un piso, mas es EGO de una anormalidad hiper debilitada.

Esto también sube la observación de los Agentes y de los bibliotecarios a Tipo 2, ya que están plenamente conscientes del poder de la observación humana.

Otra cosa que mencionar, tanto Hod como Angela como las Anormalidades deberían tener resistencia a la manip de la causalidad

El alcance de la observación de Angela no es afectado y sigue como Multiversal Alto, ya que ella sí afecta la totalidad de la Biblioteca.
